

The Scottish Parliament
Pàrlamaid na h-Alba

What questions do you have on an independent Scotland's membership of the European Union?

The European and External Relations Committee is holding an inquiry into the Scottish Government's proposals for an independent Scotland's membership of the European Union and plans to hold a series of evidence sessions over the coming months to examine the proposals in detail.

YOUR VIEWS

The Committee understands how important it is that people are able to make an informed decision on the Scottish Government's proposals which is why we are keen to hear what you feel are the key questions which need answered.

You can reply to our call for views which can be found on the Committee's website below or, alternatively, send a response electronically in word format to the email address below:

EUMembershipInquiry@scottish.parliament.uk

Written submissions can also be sent to:

European and External Relations Committee
Scottish Parliament
Edinburgh
EH99 1SP

For more details, visit our website at the following link:

www.scottish.parliament.uk/EUMembershipInquiry

What do you think are the pros and cons of an independent Scotland being a member of the European Union?

Do you have any questions about how an independent Scotland would become a member of the European Union?

What influence do you think a small state such as Scotland can have in the European Union?

