S4W-26506 Alison McInnes: To ask the Scottish Government how many prisoners have had diabetic retinopathy checks in the last (a) six months, (b) year and (c) two years.

S4W-26507 Alison McInnes: To ask the Scottish Government how frequently routine dental checks are offered to prisoners.

S4W-26508 Alison McInnes: To ask the Scottish Government what assessment it has made of the take-up of routine dental checks in prisons over the last (a) six months, (b) year and (c) two years.

S4W-26509 Alison McInnes: To ask the Scottish Government what assessment it has made of the average waiting time for prisoners who require (a) emergency dental treatment and (b) dental treatment following a routine dental check in the last (i) six months, (ii) year and (iii) two years.

S4W-26510 Alison McInnes: To ask the Scottish Government what smoking cessation services are available to prisoners.

S4W-26511 Alison McInnes: To ask the Scottish Government what access female prisoners have to breast and cervical screening services and what the take-up rate is.

S4W-26512 Alison McInnes: To ask the Scottish Government how many breath tests the police have conducted on motorists in each year since 2006-07 and what percentage identified illegal levels of alcohol.

S4W-26513 Alison McInnes: To ask the Scottish Government how many (a) endorsable and (b) non-endorsable fixed penalty notices have been issued for motoring offences in each year since 2006-07, broken down by offence.

S4W-26514 Alison McInnes: To ask the Scottish Government how many licensed premises there are in Scotland.

S4W-26533 Jim Hume: To ask the Scottish Government when the Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services Implementation Monitoring and Support Group has held meetings; what was discussed, and whether it will provide the minutes from those meetings.

S4W-26534 Jim Hume: To ask the Scottish Government how many hospital readmissions there have been with an eating disorder as the primary reason in each year since 2012, broken down by (a) age and (b) gender.

S4W-26535 Jim Hume: To ask the Scottish Government which organisations it met/has met to discuss issues relating to eating disorders in (a) 2014 and (b) 2015 and what was discussed.

S4W-26536 Jim Hume: To ask the Scottish Government how many deaths have occurred in 2015 as a result of eating disorders, broken down by (a) age and (b) gender.

S4W-26537 Jim Hume: To ask the Scottish Government how it is promoting the Scotland GP Returner Programme.

S4W-26543 Jackie Baillie: To ask the Scottish Government whether it has changed the structure of the (a) Aberdeen Western Peripheral Route, (b) Dumfries and Galloway Infirmary and (c) Royal Hospital for Sick Children in Edinburgh capital project and, if so, what changes it has made and for what reason.

S4W-26544 Kevin Stewart: To ask the Scottish Government what data it holds on the control of urban gull populations across Scotland.

S4W-26545 Kevin Stewart: To ask the Scottish Government whether any local authorities use management rules under the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 to discourage the feeding of gulls on public land.

S4W-26546 Kevin Stewart: To ask the Scottish Government which local authorities issue planning guidance on gullproofing, and whether the effectiveness is monitored.

S4W-26547 Michael Russell: To ask the Scottish Government what the pupil-teacher ratio is in (a) Gaelic medium education and (b) each Gaelic medium unit.

S4W-26549 Michael Russell: To ask the Scottish Government whether it expects the pupil-teacher ratio in Gaelic medium units to be higher or lower than in mainstream English language primary education and what the reason is for its position on this matter.

S4W-26550 Liz Smith: To ask the Scottish Government how it will ensure that the implementation of the named persons provisions of the Children and Young People (Scotland) Act 2014 will not contravene the Data Protection Act 1998.

S4W-26551 Liz Smith: To ask the Scottish Government what discussions, other than the public consultation on draft statutory guidance for section 96 of the Children and Young People (Scotland) 2014, it has had with parents' groups about the implementation of the named persons policy.

S4W-26552 Liz Smith: To ask the Scottish Government what discussions, other than the public consultation on draft statutory guidance for section 96 of the Children and Young People (Scotland) 2014, it has had with those who will act as named persons as under the Children and Young People (Scotland) Act 2014.

S4W-26553 Liz Smith: To ask the Scottish Government what discussions it has had, other than the public consultation on draft statutory guidance for section 96 of the Children and Young People (Scotland) Act 2014, with Police Scotland about the implementation of the named persons policy.

S4W-26555 Liz Smith: To ask the Scottish Government how much funding it provided to the Scottish Qualifications Agency in (a) 2010-11, (b) 2011-12, (c) 2012-13, (d) 2013-14 and (e) 2014-15.

Section F – Motions and Amendments

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Each Monday, this section also contains motions and amendments that have been lodged the previous week and are still live and those that have been lodged for debate in the coming week. A motion or amendment is live if it has not been debated, withdrawn or otherwise deleted.

Support for motions or amendments that have already been published is shown at the end of this section.

Motions and amendments can be published with various symbols:

*	before the number indicates publication for the first time
...	around a section of text indicate changes to previously published material
#	a motion lodged for members' business that has received the required level of cross-party support
◆	a motion lodged for members' business that has not yet received the required level of cross-party support
R	a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

New and altered motions and amendments

S4M-13707 Gordon MacDonald: Trusted Trader Scheme Launched in Edinburgh—That the Parliament congratulates the City of Edinburgh Council on the creation of a new online directory to help residents choose contractors with confidence; understands that over 40 traders and businesses have already signed up to the Edinburgh Trusted Trader Scheme at www.edinburgh.gov.uk/info/20027/trading_standards/1205/trusted_trader_scheme creating a new "go to" list for people looking for services such as home repairs; welcomes that all traders included have been checked by the council's trading standards team to ensure that they are compatible with principles of the trusted trader scheme code of practice at www.trustedtrader.scot/Edinburgh/code-of-practice.php, and believes that residents can use the directory to find local contractors' details with the reassurance that they are reliable and have been fully vetted.

S4M-13704 Jackie Baillie: Budding Photographers at Luss Primary—That the Parliament congratulates pupils at Luss Primary School on their participation in the Island Drift Education Programme, a photography project created by the arts organisation, NVA, in partnership with Loch Lomond and The Trossachs National Park; understands that pupils learned about various photographic techniques to create a series of images using moving and static light sources; understands that their work will feature in an exhibition at Street Level Photoworks in Glasgow in November 2015; notes that, following the Island Drift workshops and a further six weeks of after-school photography lessons, two pupils from Luss Primary School, Savannah and Athena, came first and second in Helensburgh and Lomond Rotary Club's Photography Competition, with Savannah going on to win first place in the Rotary Club's District Photography Competition; believes that the Island Drift project is a fun and innovative way to celebrate the beautiful scenery of Loch Lomond, and considers that the experience has given the Luss Primary pupils a better understanding of Scotland's natural heritage.

S4M-13703 Rob Gibson: Aquascot Celebrates Successful Succession Day—That the Parliament commends the owners of Aquascot for grasping the nettle of succession planning in 2008 by moving steadily toward a mutual model of business that was inspired by the company's key customer, Waitrose; welcomes the Successful Succession event held by Aquascot in conjunction with Co-operative Development Scotland in Alness on 3 July 2015, which is one of a number of events across the country to celebrate Employee Ownership Day; notes that the event also forms part of Scotland's Year of Food and Drink; praises Dennis Overton, the vice chair of Scotland's Food and Drink, who, as chairman of Aquascot, has prepared his company for full mutual status, and wishes the workforce every success for a mutually successful future.

S4M-13702 Neil Findlay: Congratulating Susan Boyle—That the Parliament congratulates the singer, Susan Boyle, from West Lothian on receiving an honorary doctorate from the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland; understands that the singer was given the award for distinction in the field of music at a graduation ceremony in Glasgow; considers this the latest in a long list of achievements for Susan, recognising her outstanding talent and musical success; applauds her continuing commitment to West Lothian and her home village of Blackburn, and wishes Susan even more success in the future.

S4M-13701 Jackie Baillie: Walk the Rock for Dumbarton Football Club's Youth Academy—That the Parliament welcomes the third Walk to the Rock, which will take place on 5 September 2015 to raise vital funds for Dumbarton Football Club's Youth Academy; understands that this event is being organised by the Sons Supporters Trust; notes that many trust members have already taken part in similar Walks to the Rock, in 2004 and 2009; understands that all proceeds will go to the Sons' Youth Development Initiative, which supports four youth teams and is managed by Richie Salveta and a team of dedicated staff; believes that the commitment to football development at Dumbarton FC is paramount to the club's future existence, and encourages everyone to participate in the Walk to the Rock and to donate as much as possible for what it considers an excellent cause.

S4M-13700 James Dornan: Istanbul Pride—That the Parliament raises concern about reports of forceful treatment of LGBTI people and their allies by police at Istanbul Pride; notes with concern reports that the police used rubber bullets, tear gas and water cannons to disperse what has in the past been a peaceful celebration of Pride, the largest in the Muslim community; notes that Human Rights Watch has said that this "crackdown comes amid broader tightening of press freedoms and erosion of the rule of law in Turkey over the past few years", and considers it imperative that the Turkish Government give assurances to LGBTI groups in Istanbul and beyond Turkey that they can peacefully gather to celebrate love and progress in future without the threat of violence.

S4M-13697 John Pentland: Clyde Valley High School—That the Parliament congratulates Clyde Valley High School on its annual prize-giving, the first delivered by the new head teacher, Mr Nick Quail, and the last to be held in the current school building; applauds the prize winners and everyone who took part; understands that Clyde Valley High School first opened in 1992 and that the current school building has stood for over 40 years as the former Garrion Academy, which opened in March 1971; understands that Clyde Valley High School was formed from the merger of Wishaw High School, first opened in 1928 and Garrion Academy; commends all involved in the creation of the new school campus, which is due to be opened in early 2016, and wishes all staff and pupils well in their future activities.

Supported by: Anne McTaggart*, Mike MacKenzie*, Richard Lyle*, Patricia Ferguson*, Jackie Baillie*, David Stewart*

S4M-13696 Margaret Mitchell: Best Bar None—That the Parliament welcomes the successful expansion of Best Bar None Scotland; understands that the Best Bar None scheme invites licensed premises to become accredited in order to create a safer drinking environment and promote social responsibility in the licensed trade and to benefit the wider community, customers, owners, licensees, bar staff as well as police, fire and other partner agencies; understands that, in 2014-15, the number of accredited premises increased to 420 across Scotland, in 27 local area schemes, and that the national Best Bar None awards in March 2015 were the most successful yet; notes that the scheme is nationally administered by the Scottish Business Resilience Centre, and wishes everyone involved further success, which will in turn benefit individuals throughout Scotland's communities.

S4M-13695 John Wilson: Dalziel High School—That the Parliament recognises the work done by the staff and pupils of Dalziel High School in Motherwell in providing what it sees as inclusive and successful education for pupils with various hearing impairments and congratulations the teaching staff and, in particular, the pupils for their hard work and dedication to education.

Supported by: Hanzala Malik*, Anne McTaggart*, Dennis Robertson*, Kevin Stewart*, John Pentland*, Margaret McCulloch*, Elaine Murray*, Bill Kidd*, Patricia Ferguson*, Adam Ingram*, Jackie Baillie*

S4M-13694 Alison Johnstone: Myeloma Awareness Week—That the Parliament congratulates Myeloma UK on what it considers a successful Myeloma Awareness Week on 21 to 28 June 2015; agrees with the awareness week's sentiment that "no-one should have to face a journey with myeloma alone"; considers that the charity's work to support patients, improve diagnosis and care and raise awareness with healthcare professionals is vitally important, and wishes the staff at Myeloma UK well in their Edinburgh-based head office and success with their work.

S4M-13693 Cara Hilton: UK Government off-target for Child Poverty Eradication—That the Parliament is concerned by new figures from the Institute for Fiscal Studies (IFS) showing no reduction in child poverty figures for the last year; understands that the IFS predicts that child poverty will soon increase to 2.5 million, the first increase in a decade; considers it deplorable that 22% of Scottish children are reported to now live in relative poverty; fears that the UK Government will now be unable to meet its target of eradicating child poverty by 2020; condemns any attempt to redefine child poverty or repeal the Child Poverty Act 2010; understands that the four UK children's commissioners have described the new figures as "unacceptable"; believes that the proposed £12 billion of cuts proposed by the UK Government will only make the problem worse, and calls on the Scottish Government to do all that it can to protect children in Scotland from falling into poverty.

Supported by: Elaine Murray*

S4M-13692 Mark McDonald: Woodside Pupils Secure BP Cup—That the Parliament congratulates Woodside School on securing the top prize in the 2015 Aberdeen City Junior Enterprise Game; understands that the competition sees pupils run a mock company with the aim of securing the highest share price; notes that Woodside School succeeded in securing a share price of 500p, winning the top prize of £250 and this year's BP Cup, and hopes that all the pupils involved in the competition enjoyed themselves and will be able to apply the skills that they have developed during this experience as part of their ongoing education.

S4M-13691 Mark McDonald: Tree of Life Created by Dyce Pupils—That the Parliament commends Dyce pupils for their participation in a recent community art programme; notes that the programme involved primary 6 pupils, who worked with Jane Ronie, a local artist, to turn a deep philosophical question into art; understands that the pupils were encouraged to think about the meaning of life and what makes a good life and then came up with ideas individually; further notes that the pupils then worked with an adult fused glass group at Dyce Community Centre to create fused glass leaves for a tree to be displayed in the school; further understands that the tree is intended to remain on display in the school reception area for many years to come, and hopes that the project's lasting legacy will capture the imaginations of pupils for generations to come.

Supported by: Rob Gibson*, Richard Lyle*, Christian Allard*, Nanette Milne*, Mike MacKenzie*, Adam Ingram*, Joan McAlpine*, Chic Brodie*, Bill Kidd*, Kevin Stewart*

S4M-13690 Mark McDonald: Cummings Park Community Flat Signs up to Adopt-a-Garden—That the Parliament congratulates Cummings Park Community Flat volunteers in Aberdeen on being the first group to sign up to the Adopt-a-Garden campaign organised by Keep Scotland Beautiful; understands that the campaign supports the volunteers' key aim of lessening feelings of isolation for residents in the local community; notes that the campaign is funded by Tesco's proceeds of the 5p plastic bag charge, which came into force in October 2014; further notes that the Community Flat volunteers will start work in gardens over the summer months and are looking forward to ensuring that people who cannot manage their own gardens can benefit from improvement in their outdoor spaces, and hopes that the campaign will succeed in its aim of reducing isolation and improving outdoor spaces in the Cummings Park community.

Supported by: Rob Gibson*, Richard Lyle*, Christian Allard*, Nanette Milne*, Dennis Robertson*, Mike MacKenzie*, Adam Ingram*, Joan McAlpine*, Chic Brodie*, Bill Kidd*, Kevin Stewart*

S4M-13689 Colin Beattie: Earth for Life CIC Awarded £15,000—That the Parliament congratulates Alasdair Taylor from Pathhead on receiving £15,000 from the Millennium Awards Trust for the Earth for Life CIC enterprise; understands that the project aims to bring people closer to nature, themselves and each other through environmental educational workshops, courses and special events; considers that there is a need for the increased, systematic and sustainable use of Scotland's woodlands and wild places for the purpose of improving the prospects of health, education and employability for young people experiencing difficulties and for adults with mental illness, two of the most vulnerable sectors of society, and wishes Mr Taylor all the best with this initiative.

Supported by: Hanzala Malik*, Richard Lyle*, Mike MacKenzie*, Joan McAlpine*, Rob Gibson*, Graeme Dey*, Kevin Stewart*, Bill Kidd*, Adam Ingram*, Christian Allard*

S4M-13688 Anne McTaggart: 2015 IPC Swimming World Championships—That the Parliament welcomes some of the biggest names in para-swimming who will be competing in Glasgow from 13 July 2015; understands that the 2015 IPC Swimming World Championships will take place at Tollcross less than a year after the Glasgow 2014 Commonwealth Games; notes that around 650 swimmers from 70 different nations are set to compete at Tollcross in a bid to become world champion; believes that sport fans will create an incredible atmosphere and provide a warm welcome to competitors from all over the world, and wishes all the best to four-time European Champion, Andrew Mullen from Glasgow, who is hoping to land his first world title.

S4M-13686 Elaine Murray: Cost of Living in Dumfries and Galloway—That the Parliament commends the work done by staff and volunteers of the Dumfries and Galloway Citizen's Advice Bureau on the cost of living across the region; notes that the investigators recorded the cost of a predetermined "shopping trolley" of necessary goods over the course of one week by visiting 38 supermarkets, minimarkets and village shops, and is concerned that the cost of these items ranged from £9.95 in Annan to £22.26 in Sanquhar and, in particular, that the most expensive goods were on sale in the most income-deprived areas of the region.

Supported by: Hanzala Malik*, Graeme Pearson*, Anne McTaggart*, Cara Hilton*, Patricia Ferguson*, Joan McAlpine*, Alex Fergusson*, Margaret McDougall*, David Stewart*, Sarah Boyack*, Jackie Baillie*

S4M-13685 Patricia Ferguson: Click & Connect Maryhill's First Anniversary—That the Parliament congratulates Click & Connect, Maryhill Hub in Wyndford on its first anniversary; notes that Click & Connect is a digital learning centre based in a number of communities served by Glasgow Kelvin College and the Wheatley Group; further notes that this centre was opened in June 2014 and is a partnership between Glasgow Kelvin College and the Wheatley Group hosted by Glasgow Community and Safety Services; commends Bob Couper, the Digital Inclusion volunteer, who is to be presented with a Certificate in Digital Inclusion from Glasgow Kelvin College as part of its anniversary celebrations; understands that the facility provides learning support, advice and free internet access and assistance with CVs and application forms, and recognises the benefits that this can have in supporting members of the community into further education and employment.

Supported by: Dennis Robertson*, Elaine Murray*, David Stewart*, Drew Smith*, Anne McTaggart*, Margaret McCulloch*, Colin Beattie*, Jackie Baillie*, Hanzala Malik*

S4M-13684 Elaine Murray: Dumfries and Galloway Council Becomes Accredited Living Wage Employer—That the Parliament congratulates Dumfries and Galloway Council on becoming accredited by the Poverty Alliance as a living wage employer; recognises that this is part of the council's anti-poverty strategy; understands that Dumfries and Galloway is the lowest paid region in Scotland, and believes that, in ensuring that all of its employees will be paid at least the living wage, it is setting an excellent example to other employers across Dumfriesshire and the rest of the region.

Supported by: Richard Simpson*, Claire Baker*, David Stewart*, Margaret McDougall*, Anne McTaggart*, Margaret McCulloch*, Richard Lyle*, Jayne Baxter*, Neil Findlay*, Graeme Pearson*, Graeme Dey*, Kenneth Gibson*, Patricia Ferguson*, Joan McAlpine*, Jackie Baillie*, Sarah Boyack*, Hanzala Malik*

S4M-13683 Claudia Beamish: Dormont Estate Accredited as Living Wage Employer—That the Parliament praises Dormont Estate, near Lockerbie in Dumfriesshire for being accredited as a living wage employer by the Living Wage Foundation; understands that the estate offers housing, commercial woodland, let farmland, a holiday cottage, fishing and the first Passivhaus development in Scotland; recognises that the employers are committed to paying all employees, contractors or subcontractors a minimum hourly wage of £7.85; believes that this wage reflects the real cost of living and is a fair day's pay, and credits the Dormont Estate landowners for valuing the employees' contribution to the estate.

Supported by: Alex Fergusson*, Hanzala Malik*, David Stewart*, Anne McTaggart*, Kevin Stewart*, Joan McAlpine*, Graeme Pearson*, Jackie Baillie*, Elaine Murray*

S4M-13682 Linda Fabiani: Mission Aviation Fellowship, 70 Years of Help, Hope and Healing—That the Parliament notes that 2015 marks the 70th anniversary of the Mission Aviation Fellowship UK (MAF), founded in 1945 following the Second World War; believes that, from its first work in Africa, MAF's service now extends across the world providing air ambulance services, community support and disaster response and relief to 25 developing countries by operating more than 130 light aircraft flying into over 1,650 remote destinations; recognises the contribution of MAF over the last seven decades in working in partnership with others to help wherever required, most recently shown by its response to the disaster in Nepal, a country in which it does not normally operate, but where it was able to co-ordinate a helicopter response facility; thanks all those employees, missionaries and volunteers from MAF Scotland, MAF UK and overseas for their ongoing work, and wishes them well in the 70th anniversary year.

Supported by: Murdo Fraser*, Rob Gibson*, Richard Lyle*, Christian Allard*, Margaret Mitchell*, Kenneth Gibson*, Anne McTaggart*, John Mason*, Kevin Stewart*, Mike MacKenzie*, Joan McAlpine*, Jackie Baillie*, Margaret McCulloch*, Hanzala Malik*, Bill Kidd*, Adam Ingram*, Dennis Robertson*

S4M-13681 Neil Findlay: Hatfield Colliery, Call for State Aid—That the Parliament notes what it considers the devastating news that Hatfield Colliery in Doncaster is scheduled to close on 3 July 2015 and that Kellingley and Thoresby collieries will close soon after if the UK Government fails to provide aid to the last deep mines in the UK; acknowledges the efforts of miners at these pits to keep them open, and urges the UK Government to intervene to retain what is left of the UK coal industry as part of a mixed energy policy.

Supported by: Drew Smith*, Elaine Murray*, David Stewart*, Alex Rowley*, Anne McTaggart*, Jackie Baillie*

S4M-13680 Jim Eadie: University of Edinburgh Study on Votes for 16 and 17-year-olds—That the Parliament welcomes the results of a study undertaken by the University of Edinburgh, which highlighted that two thirds of 16 and 17-year-old Scots surveyed stated that they would have been very likely to vote in the 2015 UK General Election had they been able to do so; notes the study's finding that only 39% of 16 and 17-year-olds elsewhere in the UK said the same; further notes the finding that 57% of 16 and 17-year-olds in Scotland had taken part in other forms of non-electoral political engagement, such as petitioning or writing to their elected representative, compared with only 40% in the rest of the UK; understands that the University of Edinburgh surveyed 800 16 and 17-year-olds, half in Scotland and half in other parts of the UK; believes that the study highlights the success of offering young adults the opportunity to become involved in the democratic process, and believes that young adults who are old enough to pay tax, get married and join the armed forces should have the right to vote.

Bills in Progress

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is three sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Thursday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is four days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for Stage 2, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
