

Session 5 Meeting of the Scottish Parliament Cross-Party Group on Disability

Tuesday 31st January 2017, 9.30am-12pm, Scottish Parliament –
Room TG20.21

Agenda

9.30am: Gather in the reception of the Scottish Parliament to be taken through to the meeting room. Refreshments will be available and we will start at 10am.

10am-10.05am: welcome, introductions and apologies.

10.05am-10.45am: Discussion with Jeane Freeman, Minister for Social Security including responsibility for disability issues.

This discussion will mainly focus on 'A Fairer Scotland for Disabled People', which was published on Friday 3rd December. It will start with comments from the Minister, followed by Q&A.

10.45am-10.50am: Review of minutes from the last meeting.

10.50am-11am: Treasurer's update.

11am-11.15am: Possible draft joint statement – interest in developing a statement, content and next steps

11.15-11.30am: Updates from individuals and organisations on activities and developments to the group.

11.30am-11.35am: Any other business.

11.35am-12pm: Close and a chance for networking for those who wish to.