Taiwanese Overseas Youth Engagements in Public, Social and Political Affairs
By Vivi Lin, President, Taiwan Public Affairs and Social Engagement (TW-PASE)

The Taiwan Public Affairs and Social Engagement Association (TW-PASE) was founded by Taiwanese youth and students in Edinburgh in 2019. It was started with the aim of raising awareness, encouraging social proactivity, and fostering discussion regarding Taiwan's public affairs.

The tide of education and political awareness in the modern day stresses the significance of open dialogue, debate, and social action. Ultimately, at TW-PASE, we embrace the values and belief in freedom of speech and democracy; we aim to guide the populace towards engaging themselves with flexibility unrestricted by class, age, gender, or race.

Through seminars, deliberative forums, reading clubs, cultural workshops and more, we aim to explore Taiwan's public affairs and social issues, and bring about social engagement to the people of Edinburgh and beyond.
