<() For the avoidance of doubt—

- (a) no religious or belief body may be compelled by any means (including by the enforcement of a contract or a statutory or other legal requirement) to—
 - (i) make a request referred to in subsection (1C)(a);
 - (ii) nominate under section 9 any of its members to be registered as empowered to solemnise marriages between persons of the same sex;
- (b) no person may be compelled by any means (including by the enforcement of a contract or a statutory or other legal requirement) to apply for temporary authorisation under section 12 to solemnise marriages between persons of the same sex.>

After section 14

John Mason

26 After section 14, insert—

<Protecting expression of belief in marriage between persons of different sex

For the avoidance of doubt, a belief in marriage as a voluntary union between one man and one woman to the exclusion of all others for life is a belief worthy of respect in a democratic society.>

Siobhan McMahon

3 After section 14, insert—

<Protection of freedom of expression: public authority functions

- (1) For the avoidance of doubt, a public authority must not—
 - (a) withhold a service or the use of a facility from a person,

- (b) terminate the provision of a service to, or the use of a facility by, a person,
- (c) alter the terms on which a service is provided, or a facility is used, to the detriment of the person, where the reason for taking the action mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) is that the person holds the belief mentioned in subsection (2).

- (2) The belief is that marriage may only be between one man and one woman.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), a public authority is a body listed in schedule 1 to the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.>

Richard Lyle

1 After section 14, insert—

<Protection of freedom of expression: adoption and fostering

- (1) For the avoidance of doubt, the views of a relevant person on whether marriage may be between persons of the same sex may not be considered—
 - (a) by an adoption agency when considering whether to approve a person as an adopter under or by virtue of the Adoption and Children (Scotland) Act 2007,
 - (b) by a court in coming to a decision relating to the adoption of a child under or by virtue of the Adoption and Children (Scotland) Act 2007,
 - (c) by a local authority when considering whether to approve a person as a foster carer under the Looked After Children (Scotland) Regulations 2009.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) a “relevant person”—
 - (a) under paragraph (a) and (b) is a prospective adopter,
