

Call for written evidence on the Burrell Collection (Lending and Borrowing) (Scotland) Bill

Anyone who wishes to submit written evidence to the committee on the general principles of the Bill and whether it should proceed as a private Bill should do so in writing to the clerks at private.bills@scottish.parliament.uk.

Submissions should not normally exceed 6 sides of A4 in length and should be received by September 27th 2013 in order for them to be taken into account in the preparation of the committee's Preliminary Stage report. It is helpful if submissions are submitted electronically (preferably in MS Word format), although they may also be sent by post to Burrell Collection (Lending and Borrowing) (Scotland) Bill Committee Team, Room T2.60, Scottish Parliament, Edinburgh EH99 1SP.

Before submitting evidence, please ensure you have read the Parliament's policy on the treatment of written evidence, which can be found at the following link—
<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/help/31037.aspx>

Please note that this is a separate process from that for objectors who consider their private interests to be adversely affected by the Bill, where the appropriate course is to lodge an objection (rather than submit written evidence). The objection period for private bills runs from the day after introduction for 60 days and in the case of this Bill, closes at 5pm on Monday 29 July 2013.
