

Dear Committee Members,

My preference for further powers for Scotland, as an outcome of the 'Smith process' would be for all powers other than Defence/War and 'Foreign' Affairs to be held by Scotland whilst reserving the right to contend for a representative UK position of these matters.

Thank you for consideration of my submission.

Yours sincerely

Gavin Roberts