

Impact of Bank Closures

Port William Community Council

This was discussed at our meeting on Wednesday last and I have been asked to reply with the main difficulty expressed here in port William being that of the mobile branch closing, admittedly at its allotted time but whilst customers are still waiting and not then being available for another week.

Port William Community Council