

JUSTICE COMMITTEE

HATE CRIME AND PUBLIC ORDER (SCOTLAND) BILL

SUBMISSION FROM MILO CAMPBELL

There is no need for this bill as it violates our human right to free speech. You should be able to say how you feel no matter how hateful or offensive your views are. There is no such thing as "stirring up hatred". This is just a way for the government to be able to arrest people for saying things they don't like. The fact that Humza Yousef and others have not been willing to debate people with opposing views on this issue shows that they do not have any justification for implementing this bill and that they know what they are doing is wrong.

Milo Campbell
7 July 2020