Designation of local commanders

Written submission from Scottish Borders Council

I refer to your letter dated 16 November 2016 enquiring about how the designation of local police commanders is working in practice.

Scottish Borders Council has been very satisfied with the designation and work of the local police commanders who have covered the area since the establishment of Police Scotland. They have responded to the needs of Scottish Borders Council when required and they have performed well at the Scottish Borders Police, Fire and Rescue and Safer Communities Board and other meetings.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you require any further information.

Yours sincerely

Tracey Logan
Chief Executive
