Scottish Government—

- The Active Travel Task Force report and the Trunk Road Walking and Cycling strategy have still not been published on the Transport Scotland website and therefore the Committee agreed to ask the Scottish Government when these documents will be published.
- The Committee also notes that early work has begun on a review of the National Transport Strategy, which has in its scope, a focus on active travel. The Committee therefore also agreed to ask the Scottish Government whether members of the public can contribute to this work.
